VISIT TO LIBERTY.

It was our pleasure, for the first time, to visit Liberty last week, to meet the good people of that town and from various parts of the county who were drawn there by the attractive features of the Liberty Fair. The Fair was a success in every particular, the association coming out a head at least 25 per cent, while no complaints were made by exhibitors. The first day a good crowd was out, but the down pour of rain in the early afternoon delayed business. The second showed at least 2,000 desirous to see the shows and mingle with their friends, while the third, which was the last, was not quite so good in attendance. The very best order prevailed, there being no disturbances whatever. As above stated, it was our first visit and was made for no other purpose than to meet our few friends and acquaintances, to expand the same, if possible, and to broaden our knowledge of that town, the people and resources. It was one of the most pleasant visits that has ever been, and to be plain and strictly truthful, will say that heretofore we had far underrated the resources of both town and county, this being due to a very limited knowledge, but to-day we see Casey county in a different light. Her broad bottoms along Green river and tributaries, the fertile uplands which yield abundantly to intelligent management, the pure springs that bubble from the hills, her magnificent forests—a land dotted with beautiful country dwellings, indicate a prosperous, happy people.

Besides seeing the above and being impressed with the great productive powers of the soil, we were reminded of the county's worth and the inclination and character of the people by reason of the many churches and school buildings standing in the country, great white monuments to the material and intellectual advancement. Heretofore we had been of the opinion that Casey county's bottoms were narrow, her uplands rough and non productive, and her resources proportionately dwarfed, but the very reverse is true and in our judgment the county is capable of producing many of the hill counties along the Green river in agricultural products.

While Liberty is not a large town, yet it has a splendid courthouse and jail, both large, neat buildings; several church edifices, not surpassed in appearance by many towns of four times its population; good business houses, including two hotels, a splendid bank building, livery stable, etc. The appearance of many beautiful homes, many of which have been built within the last few years, indicate that the spirit of progress is manifesting itself, and within a few more years, keeping its present ratio of improvement, Liberty will be an old town, made new, a small one made larger, a substantial one made more prosperous. Its location on the high est bottom land affords good drainage, and there are many desirable locations for homes and business houses; but a good substantial bridge across the river at that place would add materially to the welfare of the town and the south side of the county. It is not the fertile uplands, the beautiful valleys nor the desirable homes that so much impresses the stranger as the intelligence and genuine hospitality of the people.

Southern Kentucky, not burdened with extreme wealth, has no aristocracy to laud its claims over an honest, intelligent and industrious populace, but recognizes the noble virtues that bind heart to heart, community to community, and truly makes country loving sisters. It is a hand-shake community, a pull the latch-string section, and in these particulars the people of Casey county are not an exception.

The many new acquaintances formed during our short visit, the special interest manifested by the members of the Liberty Band-making as their guest, could only serve to deepen our appreciation not merely for them, but the community of which they are a part.

The striking characteristics of the Liberty people seem to be friendliness, liberality and progress.

We trust that in the future the two towns, Columbia and Liberty, may be closer identified with each other's welfare, and that we may have the pleasure of further extending our acquaintance, and last, but not least, that in our particular sphere of work we may render some good to the people of Casey county.

We have never felt that the Republican papers were sincere in their denunciation of Governor Beckham on account of the persons granted him, but, regardless of facts, have made wholesale charges for no other purpose than to arouse sentiment against him for political purposes. They have asserted that Mr. Beckham has pardoned more murderers and bad convicts than any of his predecessors; that he is largely responsible for the lawlessness in the mountains. The Courier-Journal of last Saturday published the entire list of pardons granted by Governor Beckham, Ex-Govs. Bradley and Brown. It took a page and a half and shows that Gov. Beckham has released from State prison just half as many as either Bradley or Brown; that Bradley released seven times as many as his predecessor, and Brown released three times as many; that both Bradley and Brown released three times as many for manslaughter and five times as many life convicts as has Beckham. The list shows the names of prisoners actually released by pardons, and gives the names of the places received from, the term and date released. The record shows that Gov. Beckham has released 188 prisoners by pardon, Gov. Bradley 249 and Gov. Brown 202. Gov. Bradley released 56 life prisoners, Gov. Brown 51 and Gov. Beckham 11. Gov. Bradley released 72 for murder, 104 for manslaughter. Governor Brown 45 for murder, 101 for manslaughter. Gov. Beckham 10 for manslaughter. Gov. Beckham 33 for manslaughter. The above, coming from the records, ought to silence the Repub-lic press in charging Gov. Beckham with the lavish use of pardons. Such charges are without foundation and have no place nor purpose in this campaign, than to mislead and create prejudices to advance political ends.

The argument in the Caleb Powers case closed at Georgetown last Friday night and after the jury had deliberated 90 minutes they were released for the night. Saturday forenoon the boy was brought in a verdict, fixing the defendant's punishment at death. Sentence was passed upon the condemned man on November 25th was fixed as a day for his execution. A motion for a new trial was overruled and the case goes to the Court of Appeals.

One thing certain, Gov. Beckham has not pardoned a man before the crime was committed, neither has he stuck pardons in the pockets of men who were in a conspiracy to murder, the murderer following the conspiracy. A great how is being made about his pardoning Curtis Jett from a jail sentence after one-half of it had been served. But who asked that pardon? J. B. Marcus whom Jett afterwards murdered.

M. L. Jarvis, of Albany, has nominated himself as a republican candidate for Circuit Judge in the twenty-eighth district. There are four other candidates, one from Palatki and three from Whitey. L. D. Dunham, of Williamsburg, is the best qualified man in the whole lay out. The convention will be September 12.

Do not lose an opportunity to hear Gov. Beckham and Hon. Oliver James speak. They will be at the Court House in Columbia Thursday the 10th. Hour of speak 1 o'clock p.m.

In the death of Maj. Charles H. Smith (Bill Ark) Georgia loses one of her most prominent citizens, a writer known throughout the United States and Europe Governor General William H. Taft, of the Philippines, will succeed Mr. Root as Secretary of War about January 1st. We prefer Taft to Root.

The Ohio democracy has nominated Tom Johnson for Governor and a good ticket to go with him.

Thursday the 10th inst., will be Beckham and James day in Columbia. Come and hear them speak.

The Sapp men of Louisville are in the Saddle and the anti-Sapites are cussing.

CAMP BELLSVILLE

Miss Mamie Raley, of Bradfordsville, is visiting Miss Nora Flece.

Mr. and Mrs. Compton and daughter, Mrs. Compton of Frankfort, are visiting relatives at this place.

Mr. John H. Chandler, one of Louisville's most promising young lawyers, spent a few days at his old home this week.

Mrs. Robt. Fisher, who has been the guest of Mrs. Ross for the past few days, returned to her home in Texas last week.

Mrs. D. W. Gowdy left this morning for Lexington where she will visit her son, W. M. Gowdy and family.

Mrs. Ruth Carroll, a popular young lady of Lebanon, who has been visiting friends and relatives in this city, returned home yesterday morning.

Mrs. Vergie Jenkins, of Plano, Ill., who has been visiting Mrs. H. E. Baker, in this city, returned home this morning.

Mrs. and Mrs. L. P. Schell last yesterday morning for Straight Creek, where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Hattie Hatcher left this morning for Chicago, where she will attend the conservatory of music. Miss Hatcher has been the teacher of music in the college at this place. Miss Jessie Hatcher, of this place, will teach this season.

Mr. Doc Days, of Hodgenville, is visiting R. D. Sanders and wife this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Sanders, Miss Maggie Baker and J. H. Sanders were visiting friends and relatives in Hodgenville last week. Mr. Sanders lost a fine horse while there.

Mr. Richard Wade of Louisville, who has been very ill with typhoid fever for several weeks, and who has been a patient of the Norton Infirmary in Louisville, arrived home on Saturday and was taken to the home of S. E. Kerr. We are glad to say he is improving at this writing.

Mr. Sanders, a young lawyer of this city, left for Buffalo, Ky., this morning where he has accepted a position in the East Lynn College as teacher of languages and in mathematics. The young folks of Campbellsville will miss "Pop" very much.

A series of meetings will begin at this place at the Baptist church next Monday night (Aug. 31). Rev. J. B. Bozeman, the pastor, will conduct the services, assisted by Dr. Gill, of Louisville.

Mr. Guy Chandler, of this city, and Miss Eta Wyatt of Lexington, will be married on Saturday evening, Sept. 1, 1903. Mr. Chandler is one of Campbellsville's most popular young men. He is bookkeeper for Singler Bros., lumber dealers at this place, and is hunting young business men. We do not know Miss Wyatt's name, but we hope to see her. Mr. Chandler's bride is said to be the highest type of a lady. May their union be a long, happy and prosperous one is the wish of the writer, as it is of all their many friends and relatives of this city.

CHANGIN LIVERY BUSINESS.

Last Wednesday Staples, Robertson & Co. sold their livery stable, stock and vehicles to Messrs. Braxton Massee and B. F. Chewning and the business transfer carried out in two stages, the one on the Campbellsville pine, near the square, and the one at the Hancock Hotel, the latter being leased.

The property purchased is very valuable, being the best stable in Columbia for many years.

The consideration was $7,000. Messrs. Z. M. Staples, G. W. Robertson and G. P. T. A. Hughes comprised the old firm and from the start they had conducted a very liberal stable, having a large number of horses and mules.

They kept good stock, nice vehicles and were courteous to every body. It was a business they disliked very much to surrender, but they got their price.

Adair county does not possess two better citizens than Braxton Massee and Ben Chewning, the gentlemen who compose the new firm. They are industrious and popular, and there is no doubt that they will be the equals of their predecessors.

Adair county has a stable house to be sold, the stable being the best in the country.

There is no doubt that the new firm will be successful.

MIDDLEBURG.

There is another Republican primary on and there is a good time over the hill after the head.

The committee appointed to process a county farm for the poor will meet at Liberty September 1st. Any one having a small farm for sale would do well to see the committee on that day.

A country road has lately been established, running up Mill Creek, and two or three men were out Friday and Saturday evening it up. This will do much to assist the people of the Grove's claim to the title above town.

Rev. W. M. Riley and wife, of Madison county, are spending a few days with their son, Mr. W. M. Riley, at Grove. Bro. Riley is an old schoolmate of Rev. T. H. Coleman, and is a preacher of considerable ability.

Charley Spears and Miss Sallie Fredrick drove to Liberty Monday August 10th, and were married, thus ending a long courtship.

It was reported a few days ago that there were six cases of smallpox at Pelyton, but the report needs confirmation at this writing.

There have been some party thieving going on here of late. Mrs. Annie Bryant's watermelon patch was raided, while Mrs. Fisher's best old hen was robbed of her eggs.

There is a picnic at Duncan today where dancing, drunkenness and disorder will likely be indulged in to a degree dangerous to society and good morals. It will likely furnish some unpleasant work for our local officials.

Squirrels are plentiful in the woods here about, and our local sportsmen are having no end of fun in pursuit of them.

M. W. Jones is confined to his bed, threatened with fever. There is some other sickness, though it is very slight. Mr. and Mrs. Elma Jones, of Missouri, are here on a visit to relatives.

The Republican County Committee called a primary to settle the Giboney-Wesley muddle for the circuit clerk, but trouble seems to be taking root at the Legislature race. The State Central Committee, in dealing with the Giboney-Wesley muddle, ruled that the convention held at Liberty in January last was erroneous, or in other words, no convention was held and that nominations made then were no good. That of course left Capt. Ed. Polley, who received the nomination for the Legislature, out in the weather, and another nomination must be made for that position. Polley holds a certificate of nomination from the Secretary of the January convention, and there is his. He is reported to have said that his name would occupy a place on the ballot at the November election, which is construed to mean that it will either appear under the "nigger calin'" or will occupy a place under an independent device. A Mr. Murphy a prominent young Republican of Big South, is a candidate and it was reported to have a few days since that R. S. Rector, of Dunnville, had a legislative bee buzzing in his bonnet. Sam has always been a candidate, but up to this writing has failed of election. There are others who would not mind going down to Frankfort to stay a couple of months. For instance there is J. H. Thomas, John Henry is no fool by a long shot, besides he is the cleverest of the "whole shooting match," and would do just as much good as any other Republican in a "Democratic Legislature;" and there are others I could mention. In fact the Republican party in Casey has plenty of legislative timber, such as it is, and it really doesn't matter a snap with us who they nominate and elect, for he will stand about as much show in the next Legislature as a hot-to-tail bull in fly time.

MR. BELKNAP AND THE LABORERS.

The Danville Advocate says: We have been informed that Mr. Belknap, the Republican nominee for governor, employs three hundred men and refuses to speak to any of them on the street when he meets them; in fact, making it a stipulation of the employment that they do not speak him. Whether this is authentic or not we do not know, but it was received from a reliable source and we have every reason to believe it is true. If this is the case, how can the working man of this State cast their votes for a man of that kind? What can they expect to gain from him? Do they think we all have to be interested in him when he adopts that kind of manner?

He may change his ways when he wants the votes of the people who have no ground to the south in his service and disregard for their wife and child. There is one fact that is incontrovertible, and that is, that all the union men in Louisville are against him. There must be some cause for this; and the reason is that the firm of which he is the controlling spirit pays less wages and works the men longer hours than any other corporation in this State.

THE LITTLE POPE.

He never tolerated gossip.

His palace has 10,000 rooms.

He countenanced labor union.

He was an expert chess player.

He called himself "the little old man."

He was a reverential admirer of nature.

He was a diligent reader of newspapers.

Dante and Virgil were his favorite poets.

His favorite relaxation was writing poetry.

He kept his private account with the Bank of England.

His brother, Cardinal Joseph, lived to the age of eighty-four.

He was the owner and landlord of a dwelling in Paris.

His table expenses did not exceed twenty cents a day.

He wrote better Latin than any other living writer in the Church of Rome.

He never recognized the Italian King as anything more than the King of Sardinia.

His private safe was in his own apartment; he carried the key himself.

So regular were his habits that his servants could tell by glancing at the clock what he was doing at that moment.

Never forgot a face, and remembered every Catholic who ever did him a service.

Was a habitual snuff user, the tobacco being prepared in Baltimore especially for him.

It is said that his attendants used to pick him up and carry him about the Vatican as if he were a child.

Ir. the Vatican he had a fixed rule for the dress of all inmates to be worn at every hour of the day.

Required park laborers and gardeners to be at their post as early as 4:30 in the morning.

Voice, while neither deep nor full, was clear and ringing, with a wonderful carrying power.

It is estimated that during his Pontificate he amassed a fortune of $30,000,000, half of which was in gifts of gold, silver and precious stones.

BRAIN LEAKS.

Ill-luck is usually founded on laziness.

The wise father tries to know his son.

The man without a dollar is always sure he would do great good with a million.

The man who cannot gnaw green corn off the cob is more to be pitied than blamed.

When a man takes no interest in politics it is a pretty good sign that he has no principle in it.

Sometimes it requires a wonderful amount of bravery to admit that you are afraid to do certain things.

Has great respect for the man who cheerfully admits that he drives one of the slowest horses in town.

You cannot judge the piety of the parents by the size of the family Bible on the center-table in the front room.

Every time we see a man beating a horse we are afraid to be sure that Jagger was mistaken.

There's only one place where such a man could be adequately punished.

A horse of men have gone to the bad trying to be good fellows.

The average woman can extract a world of satisfaction out of an opportunity of saying "I told you so."

Ever since David snote Goliathe he has had a habit of standing off at a safe distance and throwing rocks at him.

Nowhere or other we rather pity the baby that is painfully near and clean. It is a sign that it is not having a good time.

When a wife gets a letter from her husband she is not satisfied unless it conveys the information that he is awfully homesick.

Since the publication of the written agreements between Caleb Powers and the convict, Henry Yousey, waiving the truth or falsity of an affidavit, which the latter made of Powers'

innocence, to be used to influence Republican Judges of the Court of Appeals to grant Powers a new trial, the ruling of Judge Garratt is that trial of Powers are the more remarkable.

Out of six exceptions reserved by the attorneys for Powers in that trial

the Republican majority of the Appellate Court only sustained three of them, and it now remains the public through

Yours that at least one of them Republican Judges, if not more, was not willing to reverse the judgment on those three exceptions alone and had to be privately shown an affidavit from Yousey, who at that time had never testified, before agreeing to a new trial and a reversal.—Cynthiana Dem-
